My dear Sir,

The Vice-Chancellor, University of Mysore, has written asking me to ascertain and communicate the pleasure of His Highness the Chancellor as to the date on which the Convocation of this year may be held. He has also suggested for the gracious consideration of His Highness that the Convocation may kindly be fixed in the last week of October 1949, as the University will be busy with the Supplementary examinations in September and during the middle of next month.

2) 3rd row Leaf may be fixed for holding the convocation on the occasion will be used both for this course & for conferring the Hon degrees on the Governor for extending the Governor's Term & Pandit Nehru Arrival

In view of the fact that the Representative Assembly Session is also proposed to be held commencing from the last week of October, I request you kindly to let me know the advice I may submit to His Highness as regards the date of the Convocation. I may add, in this connection, that the Convocation last year was held on 25th October 1948.
